

People keep getting kicked

Written by Administrator

If chat users send too much text too quickly, they may be kicked from the chat by the auto flood controls built into the chat script.

You can compensate by tweaking the flood control settings in the jPFChat back end. Or... you can turn flood control OFF altogether.